

THE SCHOOL OF ERASMUSPLUS

Granada

The school of Erasmusplus you find in Granada, surely the most beautiful city of Spain on Andalusian ground of light and happiness.

Granada has it all: Snow, sun, beaches, tropical, monuments, history, culture, atmosphere universities, tapas, and is very lively. It is the ideal city for students.

To come to Granada there are two airports: one in Malaga and one in Granada, with cheap flights during the whole year.

The Albayzín

The school you find in the marvelous medieval historical area of the Albayzín of Arab origin declared as a World heritage by UNESCO.

The school you find in the marvelous medieval historical area of the Albayzín of Arab origin declared as a World heritage by UNESCO. The building of the school is a " Moorish house" from the 16th century, known as the "Casa del Cáliz" because it was restored in 1624 for a Castilian judge who build a beautiful baroque stairs with a dome full of nobilities emblems and one cáliz emblem. In the basement, exists a wine bodega from the 17th Century with ecological wine from 'la Contraviesa'.

The school also possesses 2 other buildings with terraces, fountains and beautiful views of the Alhambra.

The classes

The classes are very practical and dynamic. Everything you learn in Spanish you practice orally in class following a direct method of no translation.

The objectives of the class are that the alumnos learn perfect Spanish following different skills that the INSTITUTE CERVANTES suggested for preparation of the Official Spanish Exam D.E.L.E...

The teachers are young and adequately motivated to the students. Happiness and a good atmosphere reigns in the classroom.

Groups and levels

Every week are starting new courses during the whole year. Since the absolute beginners level until the more advanced levels of Spanish.

The students do a test on the first day of class and, according to their knowledge, they are appointed to a group of maximum 10 students who are around the same level as theirs.

Hours

There are classes between 09.00h. and 22.00h. The students have class varying from in the morning, in the afternoon to in the morning and afternoon. Every week the class schedules can be different depending on the formation of the groups.

Subjects

The subjects are various and different according to the levels.

In the more basic levels you learn the language and you advance through conversation and vocabulary.

For the superior levels and perfectionation you work on commenting texts, grammar, put into practice and to apply Spanish: Commercial, tourism, social, legal, scientific.

The education for the higher levels are completed by Civilization, Culture, Literature, History et cetera.

In the summer the themes are more varying and dynamic. And during the rest of the year and the longterm courses the themes are more profound and specialized with home work and exams every 2 or 3 weeks.

Program of activities

Depending on the number, the participation, and the interests of the students, the school organizes several parties, visits or cultural acts.

In any case the school suggests and informs the students about the possibilities of leisure and cultural activities.

Moreover the school provides entertainment, music, newspapers, magazines, a library and recreational games.

Parties and excursions

Besides the parties, tapas tours and going out, the students can also make excursions to some of the most beautiful parts of Andalucía: Sevilla, Córdoba, Ronda, Tarifa, Natural park of Gata,... and to some of the most spectacular places of the Province of Granada: Sierra Nevada, La Alpujarra, the troglodytes villages of Guadix and Baza, and of course, the Granada beaches, the Tropical Valley of Almuñécar and the slopes of the Rio Verde waterfalls.

Internet, DVD-Dolby Prologic and library

The school provides computers with internet connection for free from 9.00 h. till 24.00 h. each day. There is wifi internet in all the 3 schools buildings. In most bedrooms there is also internet cable connection.

The internet is very important since all students will be using it daily to realize their work for class.

The video room in which we offer DVD-Dolby-Prologic provides excellent cinema sound and subtitles to see movies from the Spanish cinema.

The library possesses a great representation of the contemporary and classics of Spain and Latin American literature. The books from the library are on loan free of charge.

Diplomas and certificates

At the end of the course all students will obtain a certificate of participation of the course. When the grades and your performance in class are good you receive the Diploma of Erasmusplus.

For those students who will be taking the Official Exam Spanish their preparatory classes will be free of charge. And those of the D.E.L.E. course are entitled to the exam paid by Erasmusplus as part of their financial help. The official diploma will be awarded by the CERVANTES INSTITUTE to those who pass.
